

2

Take a long backswing, even for very short shots. Let the speed of your swing, not the length of your swing, determine the distance the ball will travel.

3

Make a slow downswing keeping the clubface open during impact.

4

Have a long follow-through. I hope you practice this shot. It will help you the rest of your life on the most difficult courses in the world, especially if you play in a U.S.G.A. Championship.
